

East Africa Digital Farmers Conference & Exhibition

East Africa Digital
Farmers Conference
& Exhibition

The first Digital Farmers Conference and Exhibition in East Africa scheduled for 25th – 27th of April 2018 at Kenya Agriculture & Livestock Research Organization (KALRO) grounds in Nairobi which bringing together end users, service providers, disseminators, regulators, policy formulators, and technology developers of ICT solutions in the agricultural sector for the region.

25th - 27th April 2018

KALRO, Loresho Nairobi

Do you have any Agricultural Technology?

COME & SHOWCASE

The three-day event addresses the following;

- Enabling agribusiness and food security through ICT
- Use of forecasting and modelling for predicting disease and agricultural output
- Market linkage
- Use of smart apps/mobile technologies to improve market access
- Social media and digital platforms as marketing/ advertising avenues for agriprenuers
- ICT in supply chain management for efficient use of resources and increased accountability
- Use of mobile apps as information sources for seed input and crop and livestock
- Role of public and private sector in ICT policy formulation
- Role of Private Partnerships (PPs) in fostering ICT literacy and application.

Guidelines for submission;

- All Papers should be submitted in English.
- Papers should be limited to 300 words;
- Papers should indicate the conference topic to be submitted.
- Names of all the authors and the contact information of the lead author should be indicated.
- Papers should detail the aims, methodology and findings.

Deadlines;

- 16th march 2018 - Submission of Abstracts for Papers
- 28th march 2018 -Notification of acceptance
- 11th April 2018 - Submission of Completed Conference Papers

Abstract and papers to be submitted via www.eadigitalfamer.com/abstracts

For more information

Web: www.eadigitalfarmer.com | Call: 0708 484 878